For Immediate Release

A special program in February has been added to the University of Minnesota, Morris Artist Course series, Dean Rodney A. Briggs announced last week. The new feature will be a folk singer, Carlene Stuteville, who will appear on February 15th.

The originally scheduled programs for the rest of the season include an appearance of the internationally acclaimed Vienna Boys Choir on March 8, humorist Bennett Cerf on April 13, and a special performance on May 9 featuring the University of Minnesota, Morris men's chorus, the Mixed Chorus, and the University Concert Band.
